OUR VALUE PROPOSITION

We serve lending and financial institutions, corporations, private clients, developers, investors, governmental agencies, attorneys, and other professionals concerned with the value, use, and feasibility of real property. We have been serving the Greater Tampa Bay area since 1984, and our work product incorporates advanced technical applications and thorough analysis of each property. We routinely provide an integrated solution for all of our client's needs throughout Florida and the southeastern United States, providing a full range of commercial real estate services, including several specialty practice groups. Our management team, with over 140 years of combined real estate valuation experience, and our appraisal staff consistently completes over 1,000 assignments annually.

Kendra Stevens Barry, Senior Managing Director

Kendra Barry is a Senior Managing Director for Integra Realty Resources Tampa Bay and has more than 25 years of commercial real estate and appraisal experience. Along with commercial real estate valuations, her experience includes the management of professional office buildings, strip centers and multi-tenant complexes, as well as portfolio management for commercial real estate investors. Kendra specializes in special use properties including churches, funeral homes, and educational facilities, with expertise in educational properties; specifically, charter schools, colleges and universities and daycare facilities. She has appraised more than 75 educational properties across the southeastern United States, with considerable experience in Florida.
